Processional Song — “Lord Jesus Dwells Among Us” (Tune: LSB 941)

- ♫ Lord Jesus dwells among us, to free and to unchain, to bear our human suff'ring, to share our human pain. To pour out God's own justice, to spread it through the earth, to liberate the captives, to give the poor their worth. To lift up the oppressed, to feed all the hungry, to welcome in the stranger, to shelter the weary. ♫
- ♫ He came to welcome sinners, to meet us in our need, the gospel of God's kingdom declare in word and deed. To bring down human powers, the lost to seek and find, to heal the weak and lowly, to give eyes to the blind. The voice of their Creator, the whole creation heard, to those with ears to listen, he spoke the living word. ♫
- ♫ The way of life is sacrifice, to help and love the weak, to give our bread to the poor, to turn the other cheek. No worry for tomorrow, we wait on God alone, we are the slaves of all and step down from every throne. He trusted in his Father, till his very last breath, he gave his broken body, his blood even to death. ♫
- ♫ His cross is for our freedom, the vict'ry over sins, and by his resurrection, our risen life begins. No tyrant will ever hold us, we carry our own cross, God is making a garden, to heal our every loss. We look in faith to Jesus, to follow where he trod, he pours his Spirit on us, to make us sons of God. ♫
