Song of the Day — “Bought In Egypt, Joseph Labored” (tune: LSB 451)

- ♫ Bought in Egypt, Joseph labored for a man named Potiphar. In that house he soon was favored — once again, a rising star. What went wrong? That star was falling — falsely charged and locked up tight. In his dreams, he heard a calling in the middle of the night. ♫
- ♫ Joseph, dreamer, there in prison saw a famine on the way. So he used this gift of vision and made everyone else pay. When his brothers came in hunger, begging, “Help us! Give us food,” Joseph scared them and he hurt them, beat them down until subdued. ♫
- ♫ Soon the nation was in slavery, as was Joseph’s family. But they didn’t even know it, they lived on ignorantly. As they headed to disaster, God went with them faithfully. He went with them into suff’ring, one day he would set them free. ♫

Waiting on the Creator

- ♫ Our Father, bring your Rule and will to earth. Give what we need for worry-free rebirth. Bring peace among us and forgive us too, as we forgive and love in all we do.
